CRIME ANALYSTS OF ILLINOIS
ASSOCIATION

Membership Benefits

Monthly Meetings: Member participation is critical to achieving our mission. Your crime analyst is invited to attend a monthly meeting held in the Chicagoland area, usually on the third Thursday of each month. Crime trends and patterns are discussed by each agency representative and compared to patterns and trends from other areas. It is hoped that similar incident and suspect information can be gathered and linked. This has resulted in the successful apprehension of offenders in major crime patterns on several occasions.

Training: Training is often conducted by a CAI member in an area of their specialty. Past topics have included crime series identification, analysis, and forecasting; crime mapping; firearm tracing; auto theft analysis; and detailed discussions of outside training sessions. Your analyst will also be given the opportunity to learn of other training and seminars pertinent to the position.

Networking: CAI brings valuable networking opportunities to your agency, keeping your analyst in contact with others who have advanced knowledge and experience with analytical methods and procedures.

Web Site: CAI maintains a web site that includes meeting and training schedules, a member listing, links to other sites and training opportunities, and a bulk email function to member agencies. The site is being expanded to allow posting of crime information, which can be searched by other members for similarities to their incidents.
